Note 1: The contract will remain valid after it is expired if both parties do not issue any objection to the continuation of such contract.

Note 2: When any network interconnection contract expires, should the two parties not be able to conclude their negotiations within three months after their commencement, the process shall be as follows:

- (1) If the two parties concur to continue their negotiations, the terms and conditions of the current contract or such other conditions agreed by both parties will apply during the negotiation period.
- (2) Either party can appeal to the NCC for a ruling. Prior to the date of such a ruling, the terms and conditions of the current contract shall apply until the NCC makes a decision. The new contract will be made based on the NCC's ruling.

Note 3: Negotiations for the following year's contract shall commence three months prior to the contract expiry date. If negotiations are not finalized prior to the expiry date, the parties shall agree to perform their obligations based on the current contract until such time when negotiations are finalized.
